Quickly Wears Away

People sometimes dread to enter a bank; this is simply because they are not familiar with the customs of business. But this feeling of embarrassment quickly wears away with those who deal with this bank; at least we try to have it so. We want every customer to feel free and easy. . . .

Wants of the Ladies

We give particular attention to the business wants of the ladies; also the needs of children, and others with whom business is not a daily habit. . . .
We want all to feel at home when they enter our bank. . . .

THE BANK OF MADISON,

M. C. DREW President, L. A. FRALEIGH, Cashier, D. G. SMITH, Vice-President, T. C. SMITH, Assistant Cashier.

Ben M. Caldwell who for some months past has been foreman of the Recorder office left with his family Monday afternoon for Jasper where they will in the future reside.

Robert Bass, the photographer, spent several days in the city this week. He informs us that he expects to pitch his photographic tent in our town about the 25th inst.

No shelf worn goods but all new and fresh at Thurston's.

Mrs. J. J. Houser, of Grovania, Ga., came to our town Saturday and remained with her friend Mrs. R. A. Edmondson until Tuesday when she returned home.

Mr. H. B. Creech, the butcher, has placed a very fine and large ice box in his stall in the city market, and his meats are kept good and tender by being placed therein.

See Thurston's goods before purchasing.

Miss Lillian Thomas whose home is at St. Petersburg is spending the week in Madison visiting her friends and relatives. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. D. Stanton.

We were pleased to receive a visit from Mr. H. M. Wharton one day this week. Mr. Wharton has located in our county and is principal of the school known as Lovett's school.

WANTED:—Five hundred pounds of fodder and one thousand bushels of corn. Smith & Hodges.

Mrs. W. A. Hammerley and Miss Bessie Lipscomb who have been visiting friends and relatives in the city and vicinity for several weeks past returned Tuesday to their home at DeLand.

His many friends were delighted to welcome Charlie Beggs who spent from Friday to Monday in the city. Charlie is now a traveling man, representing a wholesale drug house of Macon, Ga.

Just received at W. R. Thurston's a complete line of gentlemen's furnishing goods at extremely low prices.

Mr. J. J. Dickinson left last week for Hillsboro county where he will engage in teaching school during the ensuing school year. He is located at Keyville, where, we hope, he may achieve success.

Mr. M. D. Sullivan, of Lee, who has many friends in this, Taylor and LaPa-ette counties, has accepted a position in the store of W. R. Thurston where he will be glad to see and serve his friends.

Several of our young men left this week for schools at different places.
Russell Taylor and H. M. Fearnside are at the Agricultural College in Luke City and Waldasse Smith is at Stetson University, DeLand.

Read our money offer for subscribers on the last page of this paper. We intend to have a big circulation and will pay for it. Here is a chance for some bright, energetic girl or boy to get a nice little sum for Christmas.

W. R. Thurston has added a new and attractive feature to his business which will prove interesting to the ladies. It is an up-to-date millinery department.

Mrs. F. S. Hodges and baby Harriet returned from their summer outing Tuesday which was spent at the home of the lady in South Carolina. Doctor Hodges is as happy as a June bug in fig time because of their return.

The hard rain of last Friday necessitated the postponement of the ice cream social which was to have been given by the Orange Blossoms, a local Methodist juvenile society. The social was held Monday afternoon and evening at the residence of T. J. Beggs and was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, Miss Ausrey Smith and Mr. Alex Inglis went over to Valdosta Tuesday morning to meet Mrs. J. L. Inglis and Miss Louise. The party returned Tuesday evening and Mrs. Inglis and Miss Louise are now the guests at the home of Mr. Beattie Inglis.

The millinery department at Thurston's store is a new departure for that firm but the stock of hats, trimmings and furnishings are all of the latest designs and styles, and the department being in charge of Mrs. Banks, who is a milliner of taste and experience, will prove, we think, of great interest to the ladies of our city.

WANTED:—Five Thousand bushels of corn and one hundred thousand pounds of fodder by Fraleigh, Hinely, Smith Company.

While riding horseback last Saturday afternoon Walter Bevan sustained a painful and what was thought to be a serious accident. The horse which he was riding suddenly fell to the ground as if shot and Walter was thrown violently upon his head. For more than two hours the force of the fall rendered him unconscious but he finally came around all right and was ready for business Monday morning.

The negro school house in our town being badly in need of repair Rev. A. B.
Osgood and O. J. Coleman are circulating a petition among the citizens, both white and colored, for contributions to help in the cause. We are glad to know that they are meeting with considerable success, a good sum having already been subscribed, and we hope that they may succeed in raising what is necessary to put the building in excellent condition.

For Sale.

Sixty head of graded and registered Jersey cattle will be sold at sacrifice prices. We are going out of the business. For further particulars and inspection of cattle apply to either J. B. THOMAS or
A. E. FRALEIGH.

How People Lose Their Money

BY CONCEALING it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs, and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks, by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives.

How People Save Their Money

BY DEPOSITING it in a good reliable bank.
Confident that this bank fully meets the public's needs, we tender its services to all who believe in keeping on the safe side. . . .
